

HOWARD HARMAN SHOT BOY DOWN

Probably Fatal Injuries Inflicted on Will Reese Whitley—All Preminent People.

EYE-WITNESS TELLS STORY

Will Moore Ireson Says Harman Was Apparently Deliberate and Unprovoked.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) TAEWELL, VA., March 15.—Howard Harman, aged twenty-one, son of K. D.
R. Harman, a prominent merchant of North Tazewell, shot and probably mortally wounded Will Reese Whitley, about eighteen years old, at North Tazewell this afternoon.

Young Whitley is said to be dying in St. Luke's Hospital, Bluefield, W. Va., to-night, where he was taken by Dr. J.
Walter Witten. Harman is in jail here.
A thirty-eight-calibre pistol was used, and the ball entered the abdomen of the youth, penetrating vital organs, which the physicians say will cause death.

So far as can be learned, the shooting was done without the slightest provocation, as the youth was almost a child by the side of Harman, who was so intoxicated that he fell from his horse a short time before the shooting.

The only eyewitness to the affair was Will Moore Ireson, son of Robert Ireson.
In whose store the shooting occurred.
Young Ireson stated to a representative of this paper that the unfortunate affair was about as follows: Ireson and Whitley were in the store, looking after the trade, while Mr. Robert Ireson was at dinner, and in the meantime Harman entered and asked for a piece of candy, which was given him.

Harman ate the candy, and in a few minutes drew his revolver and struck young Whitley on the neck. Whitley asked him to stop, and walked away from him about four feet, whereupon Harman turned and, pointing the revolver at the boy, fired, with the above result.

Young Ireson seemed to think that the shooting was deliberate, and that Harman was not too drunk to know what he was doing. The affair is deeply regretted, as the parents of Harman are among the best people of the county. The family and friends of Harman claim that the shooting was purely accidental.

Dr. Witten, mentioned above, is quite well known in Richmond. For a year he was surgeon on the ambulance and an intern at the City Hospital.

BLACKFORD'S PORTRAIT.

Alumni of Episcopal High School Make Gift to University.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., March 15.—A portrait of Dr. L. M. Blackford, principal of the Episcopal High School, Alexandria, Va., was presented to the University of Virginia to-night in Madison Hall, the new Y. M. C. A. building.
The presentation address was delivered by Mr. R. Walton Moore, of Fairfax, Va., on behalf of the alumni of the Episcopal High School, who attended the university. President Alderman replied to the portrait. Short speeches were also made by several alumni of the Episcopal High School.

VETERAN DIES SUDDENLY.

Mr. William James Brown Fatally Stricken With Heart Disease.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., March 15.—William James Brown, a prominent farmer of this county, died suddenly yesterday afternoon at his home near Kenuck of heart disease. He had just returned from a trip to Danville when stricken, expiring an hour afterwards.
Mr. Brown was seventy-two years of age, and a Confederate soldier. He is survived by a wife and the following children: John T. of Danville, Va.; W. F. and L. H. of Keynote, W. Va.; Charles H., George B. and Lee Brown, of Kentucky; Mrs. D. S. Davis and Mrs.
W. J. Blankenship, of Danville.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL.

Judge Aiken Refuses to Permit Another Hearing.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., March 15.—The motion for a new trial in the case of Lewis Robinson (colored), who was convicted on two charges of selling whiskey without license, was argued in the Corporation Court this morning and was overruled. Judgment was entered for the fine of $100 imposed, but Judge Aiken stated that he would not impose a jail sentence, judgment being by court in the cases of "blind tiger men." The opinion of the court was that the conviction of Robinson was not in accordance with the evidence, and that it thought the Commonwealth's witnesses perjured themselves.

Wants Father's Former Position.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BON AIR, VA., March 15.—Mr. Cla-borne Whitworth has applied for his father's position as station agent, and it is hoped he will be appointed. It seems a befitting compliment to pay the son of a man who served so faithfully for over twenty-five years.

Complies with all requirements of the National Pure Food Law, Guarantee No. 2041, filed at Washington.

ARBUCKLE'S ARIOSA COFFEE

"Our food was good—Bread, steak, flapjacks, fresh bread, etc., but nothing seemed to warm and strengthen us as much as a cup of ARIOSA Coffee, which we kept in the original package and ground as needed." From a gentleman now in Babylon.

Arbuckle's ARIOSA was the first roasted packaged coffee, packaged for the consumer's protection and the pores of each berry sealed after the roasting with fresh eggs and sugar to keep the goodness in and make the coffee settle clear and quickly.

Talk about "roasted fresh daily," the way to get a cup of coffee that tastes like coffee, with all the delicious flavor and aroma intact, is to buy Arbuckle's ARIOSA and grind it as you want to use it. Warning: A little changes the flavor and makes the grinding easy. Coffee loses its identity as coffee after being ground or when exposed to the air.

Never buy loose coffee out of a bag, bin or tin. If it were good the roaster would not be ashamed to sell it in a package with his name on it.

The sale of Arbuckle's ARIOSA exceeds those of all the other packaged coffees combined. It is the best coffee for you, and costs you less.

If your grocer won't supply, write to ARBUCKLE BROS., New York City.

Others Chosen.

PROFESSOR SMITH RESIGNS

Distinguished Educator Retires After Fifty-Seven Years of Continuous Service.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., March 15.—A called meeting of the board of visitors of the University of Virginia was held this evening at that institution, with the following members in attendance: B. F. Buchanan, of Marion; Daniel Harmon, of Charlottesville; R. Walton Moore, of Fairfax; John W. Craddock, of Lynchburg; H. D. Flood, of Appomattox; William H. White, of Richmond; J.
D. Eggleston, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and President Alderman.

Dr. Stephen H. Watts, of Johns Hopkins University, was elected professor of general surgery and director of the University Hospital. Dr.
Watts is a native of Lynchburg, Va.
Dr. Thomas Leonard Watson, of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, was elected professor of economic geology.
Dr. Watson was born at Chatham, Va., in 1871.

Chair of Chemistry.
Dr. Robert Montgomery Bird, of the University of Missouri, was elected collegiate professor of chemistry, and made director of the laboratory for undergraduate instruction in chemistry. Dr. Bird is a native of Petersburg, Va. His preliminary education was received at the Petersburg High School. After two years under private tutors he spent three years at Hampden-Sidney College, Va., and four years at Johns Hopkins University, obtaining the B. A. and B. S. degrees at the former institution, and the Ph. D. degree at the Hopkins.

Dr. Arthur E. Austin, of Boston, was appointed adjunct professor of physiological chemistry for the remainder of the present session.

The resignation of Professor Francis H. Smith as professor of natural philosophy, was received by the board with sincere regret. The following minute was adopted:

"The board of visitors desires to place on record its appreciation of the character, the devotion, the genius and the attainments of Professor Smith, as they have been exemplified in his continuous service to the University of Virginia for fifty-seven years. Succeeding William B. Rogers as professor of natural philosophy, he has as a scholar, philosopher, and a half century that its fame and its reputation throughout the country has been placed upon an enduring basis.

"The board desires, too, to bear testimony to the strength given to this university through the character and life of Professor Smith. Thousands of young men throughout this nation have had their ideals advanced and their conception of life elevated and dignified by contact with his personality.

"The board of visitors wish for him the pleasure and freedom that come of duty nobly done, and they desire the privilege of retaining him as emeritus professor of natural philosophy upon the rolls of the university."

The board accepted with gratitude the gift of $30,000 from Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, of Washington, D. C., which is to be styled the "Barbour-Page Lecture Fund"; also the gift of $1,000 from Mr.
Richard B. Tunstall, of Norfolk, for the establishment of the "Isabel M. Tunstall Memorial Library"; also the gift by deed from John Armstrong Chandler of his property, "Merry Mills," in Albemarle county.

The thanks of the board were conveyed to Mr. Andrew Carnegie for his generous gift of the organ recently installed in the auditorium of Cabell Hall, and to the General Education Board of New York City for its donation of $2,500 to the Summer School of the university. The further sum of $1,000 was appropriated for the purpose of making a proper exhibit at the Jamestown Exposition. This brings the total amount for this purpose up to $2,500.

The annual appropriation heretofore made by the board to the University Summer School was increased to $1,500.

Judge Fines Court Officers.

DANVILLE, VA., March 15.—City Sergeant P. S. Bolassa, deputy sergeant and Jailer R. L. Woolfolk, who were in attendance in official capacity upon Corporation Court, Judge A. M.
Aiken presiding, were each fined a dollar to-day for contempt of court by talking aloud in the courtroom.

SPANISH DANCES AT EXPOSITION

Contract Awarded for "Streets of Seville," Including a La Gida Theatre.

RHODE ISLAND'S ORATOR

President Faunce, of Brown University, Selected as Chief Speaker.

NORFOLK, VA., March 15.—The Legislature of the State of Indiana has fallen in line with her sister States and passed a bill appropriating $25,000 for State participation in the Jamestown Exposition. The bill also provides for the appointment of a commission of ten to the tercentennial.
The contract was awarded to-day for the "Streets of Seville," one of the newest concessions for the War Path at the Jamestown Exposition. The amusement will cover almost 20,000 square feet of space, and will include a "La Gida Theatre," presenting Spanish opera and ballet dances, together with the plaza or street proper, and a Spanish garden.

President Faunce Orator.

The State of Rhode Island has chosen President W. H. P. Faunce, of Brown University, as the orator for Rhode Island Day, September 10th, at the Jamestown Exposition.

The Rhode Island commission also announced the appointment of Miss Mary E. Talbot as curator of the Rhode Island historical exhibit.

It. McSmith, Southern passenger agent of the Grand Trunk Railroad, arrived in Norfolk yesterday, to take charge of the Grand Trunk building at the Exposition grounds.

The first section of the exhibits for the building arrived to-day, and by Saturday the entire exhibit will be installed, making the Grand Trunk building the first structure on the grounds to be absolutely complete in every feature.

WANT MRS. HOGE.

Proposition to Remove Her Will Receive No Support in Blacksburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BLACKSBURG, VA., March 15.—The announcement that there was a possibility of Mrs. John Hamilton Hoge being removed as postmistress at Blackburg came as a distinct surprise here.
The Inspector, Calvert, was at the office several weeks ago for the purpose of examining the books and complimented Mrs. Hoge highly on the condition in which he found them. Mrs.
Hoge says that she has no statement whatever to make in the matter.

Mrs. Hoge was appointed as postmistress at Blacksburg two years ago by President Roosevelt, succeeding Mr. W.
C. Ellett, who held the office under Mr.
Kinley. She fought the appointment bitterly at the time, but the President gave Mrs. Hoge the office despite opposition. As a matter of fact the office here has been managed by a deputy postmaster for a number of years, and not since Mr. A. T. Keister held the place has it been managed by the appointed postmaster. The movement to remove Mrs. Hoge will receive no support here, and no names are mentioned as those of possible candidates for the position.

TRIPLING ROBBERY.

Report That Store Had Been Ransacked Greatly Exaggerated.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CLAREMONT, VA., March 15.—Considerable excitement was occasioned by the report that the store of the Claremont Lumber and Box Company had been broken into by burglars, and that the company had sustained a considerable loss in money and stock. Investigation by the local police, however, developed the fact that the depredations had been committed by two boys, who were caught in the store and scared away by the night watchman. The total amount of booty attempted to be carried off by the youthful marauders was thirteen pairs of cheap socks, two bunches of shoe laces and four cans of tomatoes and beans. This miscellaneous assortment of goods was afterwards found near the store in a flour sack by some of the amateur "Sherlock Holmeses" working upon the case. This was the extent of the alleged burglary. The boys have not as yet been apprehended, although steps are being taken by the factory people to run them down.

ROWLAND TO JAIL.

Guilty of Mistreating His Wife.
Gets Four Months' Sentence.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., March 15.—C. H.
Rowland, once a prominent lumberman, charged with kicking his wife and with attempting to stab her with a dagger, was tried in the Corporation Court today, found guilty and sentenced to serve four months in the city jail.
Rowland was tried in the Police Court and sentenced to twelve months in the city jail, but he appealed. He testified that his temper got the best of him, but claimed he only threw his wife across her bed to scare her. He denied that he attempted to stab her. Mrs. Rowland yesterday entered suit in the Court of Law and Chancery for a divorce from her husband.

MR. CASH IMPROVING.

Richmond Surgeon Summoned to to Perform Operation on Him.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
AMHERST, VA., March 15.—Mr. J.
Gordon Cash, of near Lovesville, in this county, who has been desperately ill with typhoid fever, is getting better. At one time it was thought that he could not possibly recover. He has been under the constant attention of Dr. R. B. Ware, of that section. Dr. J. Shelton Horsley, of Richmond, was summoned from Richmond to see him last week, and performed a slight operation on him before returning.

SOLDIER IN TROUBLE.

Cluous Is Charged With Stealing Livery Stable Horse.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ALEXANDRIA, VA., March 15.—Geo.
B. Cluous, a soldier, said to be a member of Troop F, Thirtieth Cavalry, dismounted at Port Myer, Va., was charged in the Police Court this morning with the larceny of a horse, the property of P. T. Harrington, a local liveryman.
The accused was sent to the grand jury.
The prisoner said he had no recollection of the affair. Cluous was arrested by the Washington authorities.

GIVES DECISION IN ANCIENT SUIT

Camp, Who Seeks to Recover from Lake Drummond Co., Loses Case.

DR. BARR MAY RECONSIDER

Committee Representing St.
Luke's Congregation Asks Him to Do So.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., March 15.—The equity suit of William N. Camp against the Lake Drummond Canal and Water Company, which has been in the United States District Court for a year or more, has been decided by Judge Waddill in favor of the defendant company.

Camp, a lumberman, who operates extensively on Lake Drummond, brought suit on the ground that the deepening and widening of the Dismal Swamp Canal by the Lake Drummond Canal and Water Company had so reduced the water in Lake Drummond as to seriously

REV. WILLIAM A. BARR.

interfere with his lumber business. He asked the court to fix damages.

The case will probably be appealed to the United States Circuit Court.

Some of the papers produced as evidence in the case bear the signature of George Washington, who was heavily interested in land in this section.

Early Vegetation Hurt.

As was indicated in a telegram to The Times-Dispatch, the hail which fell so heavily in Norfolk and vicinity early last night wrought havoc in the great truck-growing regions. The hail fell equally as hard in the country as it did in the city. Vast fields of spinach and kale were beaten to pieces, as were many acres of cabbage recently planted, and beans, tomatoes, cucumbers and other plants still in hot-houses suffered severely, the roofs of the houses in many instances giving way. Crops not completely destroyed, will require weeks to overcome the damage done by the hail, and the meanwhile shipments of truck from here, especially spinach and kale, will be light.

The loss occasioned by the hail will amount to thousands of dollars.

Barr May Reconsider.

Rev. Dr. William A. Barr, rector of St. Luke's Church, Norfolk, who last night tendered his resignation to the vestry of that church, that he might accept a call to the rectorate of St.
Paul's, Lynchburg, has been asked by a committee, representing St. Luke's congregation, to reconsider his resignation. It is thought that Dr. Barr might yet decline the call to Lynchburg.

Stephen B. Carney, recently named and confirmed by the Senate as postmaster at Norfolk, stated to-day that he likely will assume the duties of postmaster to-morrow. His bond has been approved by the Post-Office Department, and it now only remains for him to be sworn in.

Mr. Carney is not yet ready to announce who will be the assistant postmaster. Meanwhile the various aspirants for that office are active.

NOT MUCH INTERESTED.

People in Amherst Not Worrying Over Politics at This Stage.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
AMHERST, VA., March 15.—Not a great deal of interest has been manifested in the ensuing political fight in Amherst yet. Dr. Don Scott, the present member of the House of Delegates from this county, has opened on the person of Dr. H. S. Meyers. For number of years past this county has been represented by members of the medical profession. No candidate has yet announced himself as opposing Dr. Scott. Aubrey Strode, who is Senator from the Nineteenth District, compared with Amherst and Nelson counties. For the other county offices no candidates have been announced, though it is supposed that the incumbents will stand for re-election.

JOHNSON'S TRIAL.

Case of Negro Charged With Killing Charles Smith

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ALEXANDRIA, VA., March 15.—The trial of William Johnson, alias George Midget, colored, indicted for the murder of Charles T. Smith, son of Lieutenant James Smith, of the police force, which occurred October 20, 1906, will take place in the Corporation Court March 26th or 27th next. A statement to this effect was made by Commonwealth's Attorney Sam.
G. Brent this morning. Mr. Brent says that he has a good case against the prisoner and will secure a conviction. Johnson is now confined in jail at Fredericksburg, Va., for safe-keeping.

New York Militia.

NORFOLK, VA., March 15.—Company G, Twenty-third Regiment, New York National Guard, has determined to go into camp at the Jamestown Exposition, and Lieutenant H. N. Coates, military secretary of the exposition, has assigned the company the week beginning June 16th for their presence here.

The American Continentals will also be here, and the military secretary has assigned them a week, commencing October 14th.

"Bring Me A Good Cigar"

Recently a State Senator on a dining car asked the waiter to bring him "a cigar." The waiter brought two boxes—one was a Triangle A cigar, and the other an unknown brand.

"Which is the better?" asked the Senator. The waiter recommended the unknown brand. "Why?" the Senator demanded. The waiter grinned. "Boss says that's the one to push," he said.

You don't want to depend on what "the boss" wants to push—you'd rather choose for yourself.

How do you know a good cigar?

You can now buy cigars with the maker's guarantee on every box—a mark of merit that distinguishes scientific methods systematically applied to cigar production—a mark that stands for improved quality—better, ripper tobacco, thoroughly matured and actually blended—smooth, even-smoking cigars, absolutely clean—without increased cost.

Whatever you pay, whatever your taste, the "A" (Triangle A) mark is your guarantee of superior and reliable quality and unquestionable value.

The New CREMO
5 cents affords you a fine opportunity to prove it by the smoking test.

Every box is extra-wrapped in glassine paper, sealed to maintain perfect smoking condition and cleanliness until the box is opened.
